

EAT Stockholm Food Forum 2018

Smallholders and Powerholders: Transforming Food Systems from the Ground Up

DISRUPTIVE DIALOGUE CO-ORGANIZED BY EAT & RUFORUM

---

DATE: Tuesday 12th of June 2018

TIME: 09:00 – 12:00

LOCATION: Room 'Oxen/Väduren' (Level 5), Quality Hotel Globe

Guiding question for the session:

What is a desirable transformation of the food system from the smallholder perspective, and how can we get there?

AGENDA

08:45	Welcome Mingle Tea/coffee in the meeting room
09:00	OPENING AND WELCOME Introduction to session <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Purpose of session</li><li>● Review of agenda</li></ul>	MODERATOR: Ajay Vir Jakhar , Chairman of Bharat Krishak Samaj (Farmers' Forum, India)
09:10	Where are we?  Reflections on the lived experiences of two smallholder farmers, including challenges and aspirations for the future. (15 min)  The current situation and role of smallholder farmers in food systems globally, and important trends and impacts that will affect their situation during coming years. (7 min)	1. Norah Asiyó Ebukalin , Executive Director, Popular Knowledge Women's Initiative  2. Kisilu Musya , Smallholder Farmer and climate fighter  3. Margarita Astralaga , Director of the Environment, Climate, Gender and Social Inclusion Division, IFAD

---

EAT Stockholm Food Forum 2018

---

09:40	Where do we want to go?
	Three smaller breakout groups are tasked with designing a transformed food system that is desirable and beneficial for smallholder farmers. If possible, part of the conversation should be dedicated to the threat of climate change and relevant mitigation and adaptation measures. (35 min) Each group presents their vision to the other groups, who can ask questions about the vision and offer suggestions. (40 min)
10:55	TEA/COFFEE BREAK Held in the meeting room
11:05	How do we get there?
	Facilitated group brainstorm around the transition from one state (the current situation) to another (the vision of the future).	Ajay Vir Jakhar
11:45	Reflections and key takeaways	Lennart Båge , Co-Chair of the Green Climate Fund & former President of IFAD
11:55	CLOSING REMARKS	Ajay Vir Jakhar
12:00	SESSION ADJOURNED

---